FINAL ORDER GRANTING INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Upon the application, dated May 21, 2021 (the “Motion”)¹ [Docket No. __] of Albert Togut, not individually but solely in his capacity as the Chapter 7 Interim Trustee (the “Trustee”) in the above-captioned case, by his attorneys, Togut, Segal & Segal LLP (the “Togut Firm”), for an order: (i) authorizing him to issue subpoenas for the production of all books, records, and documents, including, without limitation, all emails, text messages, computers and/or laptop computers, hard drives, computer servers, back-up tapes, and documents related to the Debtor or its property concerning or otherwise evidencing the Debtor’s assets and financial affairs (the “Books and Records”), and the examination of various persons and entities, to obtain information concerning acts, conduct, property, and liabilities of the Debtor, and other matters relating to the extent and nature of the Debtor’s estate, and directing that all persons who receive notice of an order granting this Motion and any subpoena issued by the Trustee to preserve, and not destroy, all Books and Records, concerning the Debtor and its estate; and (ii) scheduling a final hearing to consider the injunctive relief sought by the Trustee concerning the Books and Records; and upon the accompanying ¹ Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed in the Motion.

Declaration of Neil Berger, Esq., [Docket No. __] and the specific facts set forth therein showing that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage may result absent the relief sought; and after considering the Motion, the Court having entered the Order Authorizing The Trustee To Issue Subpoenas And Obtain Testimony And For Injunctive Relief (the "Rule 2004 Order") [Docket No. __] which, among other things, scheduled a hearing for May __, 2021 (the "May Hearing") to consider entry of a preliminary injunction sought by the Trustee; and it appearing that good and sufficient notice of the Rule 2004 Order and the May __ Hearing having been given by the Trustee in accordance with the Rule 2004 Order; and upon the record of the May __ Hearing held to consider the Motion, the Court having entered the Order Scheduling Final Hearing To Consider Injunctive Relief (the "Scheduling Order") [Docket No. __] which, among other things, scheduled a final hearing on June __, 2021 (the "Final Hearing") to consider entry of a further order granting the injunctive relief sought by the Trustee on a final basis; and it appearing that good and sufficient notice of the Final Hearing having been given by the Trustee in accordance with the Scheduling Order, and that no other or further notice of the relief sought in the Motion need to be given; and upon the record of the Final Hearing and all of the prior pleadings and proceedings had herein; and after due deliberation, the Court having concluded that good and sufficient cause for the relief sought in the Motion exists, it is hereby:

ORDERED, that the Motion is granted on a final basis to the extent provided for herein; and it is further

ORDERED, that sufficient reason having been shown therefore, pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7065, any recipient of this Order (and a subpoena issued pursuant to the Rule 2004 Order) be, and they hereby are, enjoined and restrained from: concealing, deleting, destroying, or otherwise altering any Books and Records, whether physical or electronic, related to the Debtor or its property and such recipient shall preserve all such Books and Records subject only to such turnover obligations pursuant to a subpoena or a further order of this Court; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Trustee shall serve copies of the Rule 2004 Order and this order with any subpoena that he serves pursuant to the Rule 2004 Order; and it is further ORDERED, that the Court retains exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any and all matters arising from the interpretation and /or implementation of this Order.
